REISSUE

Dear Sir:

Re: Reissue of United States Patent No. 6,343,006
For: COMPUTER DISPLAY SCREEN SYSTEM AND ADJUSTABLE SCREEN
MOUNT, AND SWINGING SCREENS THEREFOR
Applicant: MOSCOVITCH et al.

---

Enclosed herein is an application for a reissue of the defective patent, No. 6,343,006, issued on January 29, 2002.

Through error, and without any deceptive intent, the patentees claimed less than they had a right to claim in the patent. In particular, the Applicants believe the patent to be partly inoperative or invalid by reason of the patentees claiming less than the patentees had the right to claim in the patent. The Applicants now seek broadened reissue claims that enlarge the scope of the above-mentioned patent.

One error which is relied upon to support the reissue application is that the only independent claim in the patent is directed to a modular display system comprising a base assembly and three support arms. A support arm includes a coupling assembly for supporting a panel. The Applicants believe that the coupling assembly on the arm and the corresponding coupling assembly on the panel that engages therewith are themselves patentable subject matter that was disclosed but not claimed in the patent. The Applicants now seek broadened reissue claims that enlarge the scope of the above-mentioned patent by including claims covering various features of the coupling assemblies.

This application is being filed on the two-year anniversary date of the patent, which, in accordance with Switzer v. Sockman, 333 F.2d 935, 142 USPQ 226 (CCPA 1962) cited in M.P.E.P. §1403, meets the 35 U.S.C. 251 requirement that the reissue application be filed "within two years from the grant of the original patent."

The patent has not been assigned.

Only the claims section has been changed; in particular, new claims, appearing in an amendment paper included in this correspondence, have been added.

Respectfully submitted,

MOSCOVITCH et al.
